Return-to-office Immediate Support for Employees

Numerous Filipinos have gone back to an on-site work setup due to the ease of restrictions of the pandemic. However, these employees have been welcomed by high costs of basic commodities, utilities, and transportation due to the hyper inflation experienced worldwide. With this, SAVii thoughtfully crafted a financial solution called RISE: Return-to-Office Immediate Support for Employees where employers get to provide 100% of support to their people who are finding it difficult to juggle multiple expenses.

Through this financial solution, employees are empowered to simultaneously cover living expenses such as transportation, rent, and house bills amid the continuously rising fees. This way, employees get to focus on their work performance and deliver the best results for their company.
